MARTIN BORFANN
NAZI WAR CRIMINAL
INFORMATION CONCERNING

101313 - 10924

On May 25, 1965, HAROLD GROTE, Supervisory Investigator, U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Milwaukee, Wisconsin, advised that investigation by INS had determined that the individual who had previously been identified by Mrs. KAY LIS, Krakow, Wisconsin, as LUDWIG GRUNDELL, who, according to Mrs. LIS, was identical with MARTIN BORFANN, Nazi war criminal, was actually identical with JULIUS GRZADZIEL, INS File A7 939 193. He was identified through an interview, during which he displayed his Alien Registration Card, showing he was admitted to the United States on January 16, 1951.

Mr. GROTE advised that INS File A7 939 193 shows that JULIUS GRZADZIEL, according to his visa issued at Frankfurt, Germany, November 6, 1950, was born April 11, 1896, at Chorzow, Poland. He is described as 5' 9" tall, grey hair, grey eyes, fair complexion, with a scar on his left leg. His nearest relative is listed as HELENE BARAKOWSKA, a sister, who resides at Chorzow, Poland. His parents are deceased. His previous residences are listed as follows: 1910 to 1926, Chorzow, Poland; 1926 to 1929, Posen, Poland; 1929 to 1936, Chorzow, Poland; 1936 to 1939, Warsaw, Poland; December, 1939 to February, 1942, Brandenburg - Gerdau, Germany; February, 1942, to August, 1943, Sachsenhausen, Germany; August, 1943 to February, 1945, Oranienburg, Germany; February, 1945, to March, 1945, Mauthausen, Austria; March, 1945, to May, 1945, Gusen, Germany; May, 1945, to July, 1945, Regensburg, Germany; and from July, 1945, to November, 1950, Straubing, Germany.

Mr. GROTE stated the file includes a Police Good Conduct Statement, issued at Straubing, Germany, October 31, 1950, and an original Testimony of Birth and Baptism from the Roman Catholic Pastorate for Poles in Germany, Coburg, Germany, dated July 27, 1949, which gives his date and place of birth as April 11, 1896, at Chorzow, Poland. It lists his parents as PAVEL GRZADZIEL and JOSEFA, nee RUTNER. The file also contains a report by the U.S. Displaced Persons Commission showing that JULIUS GRZADZIEL was imprisoned for political reasons in the jails at Berlin and Brandenburg, Germany, from September, 1930, to December, 1941; and from December, 1941, to May, 1945, was imprisoned in concentration camps in various places in Germany and Austria.
